Mr. J.W. Garrett,

N.Y. City.

My dear Mr. Garrett.

I went over the coins of Mrs. Rhodes today and find I can make an offer of $228.00 for them, and this is my best offer. While the collection could be offered at auction sale, it is a collection of such a nature that after the commission were paid she would gain nothing by offering them in that way, while by selling them for cash she gets the best market price, thus saving the delay attendant on auction sales, and ^{without} waiting the usual thirty days for a remittance after a sale is held. The offers for the gold are higher than they would have been a year or so ago, so she would sell the coins at the best time. There are no strictly rare coins in the lot and the U.S. Cents are a very ordinary lot, worth only a few dollars in their conditions.

I, therefore, am enclosing a check for $228.00 made out in the name of Mrs. Rhodes, which if acceptable she may accept; or if you wish to sell but wish the check in your name, I shall be glad to change it. Awaiting your advice, I remain

Yours respectfully,

Thomas L. Elder

Dear Mr. Elder:

I received your letter and I receive her answer. I think it would be very satisfactory to Mrs. Rhodes if you could the more important pieces individually.

My dear Mr. Garrett.

I was sorry you had to decline my invitation. This dinner is going to be a nice affair. The speakers will be E.T. Newell President of the A.N. Society, his subject Counterfeit Ancient Coins. A subject of great interest. by a great expert on them. T.L. Compagette, Ph. D. of the U.S. Mint; A.R. Frey on some peculiar mint marks, and A.R. Drowne, of the Sons of the Revn, on "Recollections of early dealers and collectors." The dress will be informal. If you find later that you could drop in for the dinner, or after it, please do so. I wont ask you to speak unless you wish to.

A word about Mrs. Rhodes St. Gaudens coins. In listing them in the catalogue I referred to the high auction record I once got for one of them, $37.50, but you should remember this coin has dropped off in price and we dont know from one time to another what we can get for one.

I made 16 plates of coins yesterday for this sale, which is the biggest and longest I ever held. The plate catalogue at $5 is a great bargain. If you find later you wish one kindly let me know. It costs far more than we sell it for. There are two Philistis tetradrachms in the sale one uncirculated, the other one extremely fine, and a great many others some rare. There must be 300 ancient coins in the sale. There is a fine line of the early heavy types of Roman bronze coins.

Yours truly,

*We are expecting D.F.

Please send your summer address. .
Of course, you will not wish to miss this sale.

Announcement Extraordinary!

POST-CONVENTION PUBLIC SALE of the L. C. Gehring Rare Coin Collection

To be sold by order of executor, Wm. Gehring, Esq., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Catalogue by The Elder Coin & Curio Company of New York

Collectors who were acquainted with the late L. C. Gehring, Esq., of Brooklyn, N. Y., know that he possessed one of the finest collections of American Gold Coins, U. S. Cents and Half Cents, U. S. and Confederate Paper Money.

In American Gold: Choice Private Gold Coins, Fifty Dollar Gold pieces and a very fine collection of California Gold Dollars, halves and quarters.

In United States Gold, a long line of rare Double Eagles, Eagles, Half Eagles, Quarter Eagles, Three and One Dollar pieces. This list includes some of the rarest prizes in the series in the best condition, dating from 1795 and 1796. This line is so complete and extensive that it numbers well over five hundred pieces.

In United States Cents and Half Cents, many choice coins from 1793.

In United States Paper Money, uncirculated Greenbacks of various issues up to $20.

In Rare Confederate Notes, a remarkable collection with about all rarest in the series including choice examples of the rare Montgomery $500 and $1,000 notes. This series includes hundreds of notes.

The whole collection is free from what is known as "junk."

It is a collection worth many thousands of dollars and the sale is absolutely without strings, a bona fide offering to settle an estate, and not a fake affair, done up to delude collectors.

The collection will be offered as a special postlude to the American Numismatic Convention to be held in Boston from August 20th to 25th. It will run for two days and the dates are those immediately following the adjournment of the Convention, viz., FRIDAY and SATURDAY, AUGUST 26th and 27th. Do not forget these two dates—August 26th and 27th.

A SPECIAL PLATE CATALOGUE, illustrating some of the finest coins in the collection will be offered and sold for only $5.00, which less than covers the cost of making them. A priced catalogue will cost $1.25 extra.

The regular catalogue will be sent to our customers and those asking for it, and will be issued in a couple of weeks.

Please do not miss this collection, which has just come into our hands to be offered to collectors. It will be one of the most valuable sales we have ever held.

Dear Mr. Elder:-

I enclose herewith my check for the coins bought for my account at your recent sale. You will notice that I have deducted $26.00 from the total amount. My intention was to bid on No. 648 or No. 1336 and No. 650 or No. 1333, but I had no desire to have all four of the coins. I shall be much obliged if you would look at my bid sheet and see whether this was not indicated. If I am mistaken, I should be much obliged if you would re-sell the two duplicates, namely No. 1333 and 1336 for my account. I send them to you herewith.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:-

I am enclosing my check for the coins purchased at your recent sale less $25.00 which I have deducted because I cannot find No. 2173 in the package received. I should be very much obliged if you would check this up and see if it was perhaps left out by some mistake. The other pieces are very satisfactory and I am glad to have them and am much obliged to you for executing my bids.

Dear Sir:-

Referring to your bid sheet you will please note that your bids on the 1869 $20.00
of antimonial coins read either 1780 or 2173 in case #1780 should not be purchased. After the sale I discovered that Mr. Elder had overlooked my written instructions in the bid book during the rush of the sale and secured both 1780 and 2173 for "W. J." Garret orders to have one of the lots taken out, and in making the change, whif, confusion in the picking out by the clerk resulted.
Send the extra gold piece as we heard the last lot up and sent on to you by registered mail to the Garrett Bldg. Please look the matter up as you should find #2173 awaiting your attention. Note that the same has been deducted from your bill so kindly forward the extra item. That the $25.00 to cover

explanation is clear to you as you simply did not wish both the gold coins of the same date. I looked the matter up as you had to return a lot once before due to the oversight on alternative bids, and did not wish you the trouble of sending a lot back this time.
Trusting that the lot reached you safely,
